More about this meeting

This meeting is part of our bi-annual stakeholder meetings on transitioning from child to adult services and from living at home to living independently. This event is suitable for anyone interested in transitions or with lived experience of transitions.

The purpose of this is a network to share information, learning and opportunities across regions and sectors of Wales. Join us and hear from interesting ideas from across a host of sectors that aim to give a voice and control over the transitions process.

Who are these meetings for?

Anyone who has an interest in transitions, from families to professionals who want to join a growing network that works across sectors to help support families find or build the right options for them.

How to join?
